Financial Difficulties of the Exclusive Athenian Club.

IT MIGHT BE DISBANDED.

The Police Find No Trace of Reed's Assault—Rosborough's Benefit.

The Athenian Club, Oakland's exclusive gentlemen's social organization, is in a bad financial way.

Whether or not the club should sell its belongings and go out of existence was seriously debated at a meeting held on Saturday night last, and while several schemes for putting new life into the club were propounded by the members present, the outlook was by all acknowledged to be dubious.

The matter first came up when W. W. Foote, who was up to the last election, president of the club, introduced the incoming officers.

In his farewell speech he stated that the club was heavily in debt, that the membership was falling off, and that unless some means were devised to get in new members or raise funds by other means to pay off the indebtedness the club must go to the wall.

LIBERTY CYCLING CLUB.

Its Initial Five-Mile Run From Fruitvale to San Leandro.

The Cyclers Found a Very Rough Road, and That Accounts for Poor Time Made.

The Liberty Cycling Club held its initial five-mile handicap road race yesterday over the course from Fruitvale to San Leandro.

The road was very rough, which accounts for the poor time made. Two of the riders fell, Honigsberger and Ireland, but only suffered a few slight bruises.

A Joost won first place, while M. M. Shields made the fastest time, fifteen minutes. The following table will show the positions at the finish, handicaps and net time made:

Table with columns: NAME, Handicap, Net Time. Includes entries for A. Joost, M. M. Shields, C. Bouton, etc.

The club members were much pleased with the success of their first attempt at road racing, and feel encouraged to run off others in the near future.

The officials of the day were: G. Payton, referee and starter; H. E. Morton, B. Bouton, clerks; J. W. Leavitt, G. Payton, timekeeper.

Twenty-four members of the Bay City Wheelmen were to Blythedale yesterday, where they were the guests of George P. Wetmore. The Imperial Cycling Club rode to the same place.
